CIEE-University of Ghana
Legon, Ghana

EDUCATION ABROAD

EXPLORE · PREPARE · REINTEGRATE

Program Overview

The CIEE Student Center at the University of Ghana provides an opportunity for students from all academic disciplines to live and study in Ghana, learning first-hand about the country and its people, while continuing to pursue their own academic goals. These goals are achieved through integrated study with Ghanaian students and immersion into the cultural and social life of the University and surrounding community.

Host Organization

CIEE, founded in 1947, currently runs 104 study programs in 35 countries. The mission of CIEE is "to help people gain understanding, acquire knowledge, and develop skills for living in a globally interdependent and culturally diverse world."

CIEE collaborates with the University of Ghana, which is the oldest and largest of the six public universities in Ghana. The University of Ghana is home to 28,000 students and a faculty of over 900.

At-a-Glance

Program Type:
SU-Sponsored (100% Aid portability, SU Tuition + Program Fee, SU Credit)

Location:
University of Ghana– Legon, Ghana

Eligibility:
3.0 GPA, Good Academic & Conduct Standing, Junior Standing, Previous Coursework in African Studies Recommended

Housing:
On-campus Dormitory, Off-campus Housing, or Homestay

Estimated Cost:
$15,165 (based on 2013-2014 tuition, subject to change) + $1,600 paid directly to CIEE for board. Cost includes tuition, housing, orientation, and in-country excursions.

Areas of Study:
African Studies, Development Studies, and Twi

Language of Instruction:
English and Twi

Faculty Liaison:
Olufemi Taiwo- taiwo@seattleu.edu, Ext. 5475

Application Deadline:
February 14, 2014