DIS
Copenhagen, Denmark

EDUCATION ABROAD
EXPLORE · PREPARE · REINTEGRATE

Program Overview

The Danish Institute for Study Abroad (DIS) program provides students from a variety of disciplines with an opportunity to take academically challenging courses taught in English. The unique academic nature of DIS combines courses with field visits around Copenhagen and study tours throughout Denmark and the rest of Europe. Despite taking courses in English, students are provided with significant opportunities for cultural immersion through housing options, optional language courses, as well as opportunities to

Host Organization

DIS, established in 1959, is a non-profit educational foundation affiliated with the University of Copenhagen. DIS is known to be intensive, demanding, and rewarding with a unique academic environment that includes study tours and significant hands-on learning.

At-a-Glance

Program Type:

SU-Sponsored (100% Aid portability, SU Tuition + Fees, SU Credit)

Location:

Danish Institute of Study Abroad– Copenhagen, Denmark

Eligibility:

3.0 GPA, Good Academic & Conduct Standing

Housing:

Host Family or Folkhojskole

Estimated Cost:

$15,165 (based off 2013-2014 rates and subject to change) + $1,500 Program Fee + $4,500 paid directly to DIS for room and board. Cost includes study tours, local excursions, and orientation.

Areas of Study:

Architecture, Business, Communication, Economics, History, Politics, Psychology, and Public Health

Language of Instruction:

English

Application Deadline:

February 14, 2014